THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

Office of the Attorney General, Saipan – The Office of the Attorney General has launched its new redesigned website at www.cnmioag.org. The new website affords access information on current issues and view activities of the Office of the Attorney General. The website also allows download of forms such as the Consumer Protection Complaint and Child Support Enforcement forms.

Attorney General Edward Manibusan stated, “the website has been a work in progress since I became Attorney General. I am eager to provide the CNMI community and our government the opportunity to learn about the Office of the Attorney General and the services we provide.”

Attorney General Manibusan further stated “our offices receive many different inquiries and requests on a variety of issues. The website provides a direct line of communication with our community.”

The website features a hotline page and a hotline number for use in reporting violations of law and corruption. The Attorney General encourages and invites our citizens to use our website in search of information and to report illegal activities.

Other information is provided on the website such as the Attorney General General’s annual report for the years 2015 to 2017. These reports are a compilation of the Office of the Attorney General’s Divisions and Units’ that highlights the work, challenges, and accomplishments of the Office.

For more information on the Office of the Attorney General website, please log on to the website at www.cnmioag.org.

If you would like to obtain a copy of the 2017 Annual Report, please contact Carla Torres at 237-7500 or via email at carla_torres@cnmioag.org.
